Property Description

This two bedroom two bathroom home has great valley and ocean views and is located in the established neighborhood of Lagunas in the southern zone of Costa Rica. Just five minutes from the small but busy surfer town of Playa Dominical. Playa Dominical is known for its great restaurants and world class surfing beaches that have swell year around for all levels of surfers. Sit from the deck of this quaint home and enjoy the sea breezes while listening to the monkeys and toucans sing and play in the trees down below. This home is ideal for a full time resident or someone looking to enjoy a home in Costa Rica part time while renting it out the rest of time.
