Property Description

Quality, Convenience, Comfort.If you desire a tropical lifestyle, living in a quiet convenient neighborhood, surrounded by towering trees and amongst “wildlife” look no further.Enjoy hiking through your own private oasis, on your own private trails, which is frequented almost daily by both Howler and White-face Capuchin monkeys, a resident sloth,and a variety of birds including toucans, Scarlett Macaws, and the rare Three-wattled Bellbird- which are very secretive and shy and are more often “heard” than “seen.”The International Union for Conservation of Nature has assessed their conservation status as "vulnerable”, which means they soon could be on the endangered species list.This amazing property is located on a winding, well-maintained, tree-lined road and is only 1 km to the Costanera Highway – the gateway to access miles of pristine beaches, with quick and easy convenience to the towns of Uvita and Ojochal.
