Property Description

Imagine building your next home in Dominical, with easy access to surfing beaches and stunning waterfalls. VistaDominical Estates features ocean view lots in a small, gated, boutique development. It offers easy as it gets access to Playa Dominical. Every parcel has ocean views looking directly down the Baru River as it drains into the ocean. You can watch the waves break onto the beach. This is surfer's paradise since they will appreciate both the direct views of heavy breaking waves and the sounds of the crashing waves echoing up from the canyon.The key advantage Vista Dominical Estates is the easy access to town. Located just behind the town of Dominical, you can drive, bike, or walk down the lazy dirt road into town. This is the only ocean view development where you don't have to drive on the highway to get to Dominical or to go to the beach! It is that close. You can spend your days at Playa Dominical learning how to surf, hiking, and visiting the Nauyaca Waterfalls or going into town and trying some restaurants.
