Property Description

This residential home site is located on the highest point of the project and offers dramatic ocean and valley views. The view orientation from the property is towards Playa Grande, the estuary system and Tamarindo Bay. The Road system leading to this home site services only this property ensuring maximum privacy. The setting is beautiful and mature trees frame the views. When leaving, if you must, there are views of boats in the bay, Punta San Francisco to the south and Playa Grande to the north.
