Property Description

Located in the heart of the Southern Pacific zone of Costa Rica this farm is ideal for the individual looking to have a large working farm. The entire farm is either fenced in or bordered by a year around running river. Perfect for live stock, horses, can cattle. Another option would be to turn this rolling hill, river front farm into a working hard wood farm or ecological retreat where the guest could enjoy the wonderful view of one of the largest waterfalls in Costa Rica, "The Diamante Water fall" Dont miss out on this one
