Property Description

You get the best of all worlds when you decide to purchase this designer home with stunning views of primary rain forest & mountains. Located in the heart of Uvita, and only a six minute ride up the hill, this property features its existing home, a spectacular building site that overlooks the famous Whale's Tale and Pacific Ocean. And there is a smaller building site for those seeking to create an income machine. The Uvita designer house has all teak doors and cabinets, high quality construction. This spacious open floor plan is located on the first mountain range overlooking the Whale's Tale as well as the second mountain range overlooking a preserve, which provides views of a wall of primary rainforest.The Master bedroom has floor to ceiling windows overlooking mountains covered in primary rain/cloud forests. The home has Spanish porcelain tile floors that segways seamlessly to the deck and the breathtaking views beyond.
