Property Description

This 4,000 sq ft luxury home is located within the boutique gated community of Villas Sangha. Designer Cynthia Voetsch used her knowledge of Costa Rica to custom build this luxury home in 2018 with contemporary Balinese architectural elements and style. Located on a 1.40-acre lot of lush rainforest jungle and ocean views, this property features four master bedrooms, an indoor and an outdoor living room, and a high-end kitchen with a built-in wine cooler. It also includes all of the features most homeowners are looking for: a lush rainforest setting with an abundance of wildlife, an infinity swimming pool, easy access to a family-friendly beach, and a close proximity to local schools and other Costa Rica attractions. This property is ideal to invest in for a second home, and there is a viable rental opportunity there as well.Three of the four master bedrooms are located in the main house.
