Property Description

Have you ever dreamed of waking up, walking out on the front porch and checking the surf? This property is one of a kind, ocean view from the point of Playa Guiones to the main surf break at the Palm Tree and a small private waterfall on property in the rainy season. As a bonus, the driveway is even gated at the bottom with a security code. If you were looking for a special piece of land to build your dream home in Nosara, look no further. Please contact Jim Ewing at jim@surfingnosara.com to get more details on this spectacular property.
