Property Description

This magnificent lot is strategically located next to the main street, in the town of Carrillo, less than 5 minutes driving from the pristine white sand beach of Carrillo, and about 10 minutes from downtown Samara. Due to its location, this lot is suitable for residential or commercial development. It has private access from the main street and guaranteed access to all services, a flat surface which allows any construction project to begin immediately. An excellent investment opportunity that you cannot miss.
