Property Description

Just reduced by $10k!! This lovely two bedroom two bath home is one of Playa Negra's hidden gems! The home was purchased a couple years back and completely renovated from the top to the bottom. The list is really too long to mention but some upgrades include: Italian porcelain tile throughout, custom made kitchen and bar table, new master and guest ensuite, teak ceilings, stainless steel lights, all new windows and doors, stainless steel appliances, new roof, and more. All the furniture comes with the home. It is rental ready. It is located very close to a popular Yoga center here in Playa Negra and the home will be guaranteed to receive plenty of overflow bookings from the center. This home should have great revenue. It is located on a private finca. The property is enormous, well landscaped, immaculate, and private. They have their own clean water supply from a well system which includes the pumps and storage tanks.
