Property Description

One of the last lots in Cascada and with an Ocean View!!! Tres Ríos is now arguably the best residential high end building area in the South Pacific. Meticulously maintained, the gated community of Cascada Sandalo is now the hot spot for those “in the know” Home to all 4 species of monkeys, countless waterfalls and swimming holes the Tres Rios valley has it all. This lot is at a perfect elevation so the need for air conditioning is an option not a necessity and at this height you are still below the cloud layer making this property an ideal location for your dream home!
