Property Description

Very secluded, gated, beautiful, cool 10-hectare farm surrounded by indigenous cloud/rain forest. With an abundance of clean spring water, you will find two 25 foot waterfalls on the property. This property has an abundance of wildlife and will amaze birders from around the globe. Viewing to the north in the valley is the 2nd highest waterfall in Costa Rica, the San Luis Waterfall (over 400 feet). Looking to the East you have the view of the Chirripo Mountains which stand over 12,000 feet. A major attraction in the southern zone where climbers come to summit the mountain and spend the night at its peak. You will find internal roads with currently 5 ocean and valley view building pads and areas for another 5-7. Located approximately 1/2 way between San Isidro and the Pacific Ocean/Uvita. Water Concession applied for, electricity is less than 1 kilometer and you will find container home and 4 20' containers for storage on the property.
