Property Description

This is one of the cutest and least expensive homes on the market in the area of Playa Negra. It has a lovely sitting area, two generous bedrooms and both have ensuite bathrooms. There is a comfortable kitchen, lockable covered parking, and a huge storage and laundry room which will serve well as an owners storage locker. You will also find a lovely screened in porch, large outdoor shower for getting the sand off your toes, and separate gazebo. The property is manicured and full of large trees. You can count on the monkeys coming through on a regular basis. This property is almost two acres and is designated as an agricultural lot. Two homes can be built here, swimming pool, garage and other ancillary structures. The total building footprint is 15%. There is electric, water from its own well (public water coming in January, internet, and 3G cell service. It only takes a moment to click for more details.
