Property Description

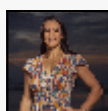

Malpais, a small coastal town that lies at the southern tip of the Nicoya Peninsula, Puntarenas. A nice weather all year-round makes this village among Costa Rica's unspoken gems for vacation destinations. Mostly uncrowded, the area mixes a natural charm with plenty of luxury and beautiful accommodations and restaurants dotting the coast. Malpais has preserved its serene atmosphere, even while nearby villages have become more commercialized. This stunning ocean view lot is located inside a small gated community just a short drive to the beautiful beaches, restaurants and fishing village. It measures over 13000 sq meters (3.2 acres) and have a great flat building area with amazing views to the jungle and the ocean. The property has access to all public services making it the ideal opportunity to start building your dream vacation/permanent home. Contact us to schedule a viewing!
