Property Description

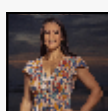

This very special property is large, secluded, and private. It is nestled in the jungle of Manzanillo, with some ocean sunset views from the top of the property. This property is currently a jungle retreat center. This property would also be a great development property for 4-5 private homes. The property is approximately a 3-minute drive to the beach and the town of Manzanillo. The property measures 38,717m² (9.5 acres), and it is a true nature's paradise. There are several rolling hills across the property as well as trails through the jungle canopy. There are 5 charming wooden cabins at the top of the property with sunset and ocean views. Each cabina has one large bedroom with A/C and a balcony on the 2nd story, and a bathroom, kitchen, and terrace on the lower floor. There is also a large, shared rancho below the 5 cabins with a restaurant/bar, lounge area, and swimming pool with sun terrace and gardens.
