Property Description

Discover a truly special property located in the peaceful mountain community of Dota, in the heart of the renowned Zona de los Santos. This beautiful 2.5-hectare estate offers an exceptional combination of flat usable land, lush nature, breathtaking mountain views, and a refreshing highland climate. The property features large flat areas, making it ideal for building a mountain cabin, private residence, retirement home, or small eco-tourism project. Surrounded by forest and open green spaces, the land provides both privacy and tranquility, creating the perfect setting for those looking to live in harmony with nature. One of the highlights of this property is its abundance of fruit trees and natural vegetation, including avocado, uchuva, mora, granadilla, and naranjilla. These fruit trees not only add beauty to the landscape but also offer the opportunity for small-scale agricultural production or a self-sustainable lifestyle.
