Property Description

Less than 400 meters from the surf at Playa Coyote, Natural Mystic occupies an elevated position overlooking one of the longest undeveloped stretches of coastline in Costa Rica. From the estate, uninterrupted views extend more than 121 kilometers, and at your feet lie Playa Coyote, Playa Costa de Oro, and Playa San Miguel—a panorama that remains remarkably unchanged in a country where much of the coastline has already been transformed by development.Completed in 2019, Natural Mystic was conceived as a self-contained coastal compound rather than a single residence. Designed for full-time living, extended family ownership, executive retreats, or boutique hospitality, the estate offers a rare balance of privacy, flexibility, and effortless day-to-day living.The 3,000-square-foot main residence occupies the highest point of the property, while two twin 1400 sq ft independent guest villas and a discreet caretaker's residence are carefully positioned to give everyone their own space without losing the feeling of a connected estate.
