Property Description

Located in a gated community between the town of Baru and Platanillo, Colinas Pacificas #5 is a select property on many levels. Unlike many properties in the area, you will enjoy easy access to the development. There is a gated and full-time employee perched just above. Once you pass through the gated, it is 2wd to the property. Lot #5 was one of the first lots selected in the development and the reason is immediately clear - a gorgeous, curving driveway leads to an extra large building site. The expansive valley view is capped with a lovely window ocean view. You will enjoy privacy and Nature-- large, ancient trees, wildflowers, and abundant wildlife-- that surrounds you at this idyllic spot. The adjacent property Colinas Pacificas #6 is also available. These properties are priced to sell, and definitely worth a look. Paved two-lane road to the development entrance, improved gravel road 2wd to the property.
