Property Description

This is the last lot available between the E, EE, F, and D sections with this large of a view for this low of a price. Imagine building your dream vacation home and sitting by the pool watching the break at Playa Guiones. You can also take advantage of the cool ocean breezes and surrounding nature to make this spot something very special. This property provides the rare opportunity to have both outstanding surf break ocean & mountain/valley views while being located on a dead end street. This spot is in the D section so you are a short drive to the surf or into Guiones and have a very pleasant neighborhood to enjoy the cool breezes and stunning views.
